We're ALL in this together!

EXPECTATIONS for ALL

WEAR A FACE COVERING under the current order from Governor Dewine to protect yourself, your family and our community from a surge in COVID-19 cases.

ADHERE TO 6 FT. SOCIAL DISTANCING, follow the entrance, exit and directional signage posted in the barns, arenas and aisleways.

WASH YOUR HANDS AND USE HAND SANITIZER OFTEN to prevent the spread of COVID-19.

DO NOT EAT OR DRINK IN THE BARNs, STANDS or ARENAS. Utilize your camper as a hub for eating or the tent in the food concession area.

RESPECT what is being done to provide youth the opportunity to showcase their projects. Everyone's cooperation is ESSENTIAL to insure a safe and successful experience for ALL.

Thank You for Helping Us Do 4-H the Right Way During COVID-19

4-H Royalty Candidates

Mackenzie Blair's experience in 4-H has taught her about responsibility and the importance of hard work and friendships. For as long as she can remember, she has always looked up to 4-H Royalty as the examples of what a great 4-H member. She looks forward to being such a mentor and leader for the 4-H community. This Kountry Kids club member has participated in 4-H for 9 years and has shown a variety of animals including rabbits, turkeys, hogs, goats, dairy feeders, chickens, and ducks. Her non-livestock participation has included art open class, photography open class, and antique open class. Mackenzie has served as a camp counselor, vice president of her 4-H club, and a variety of community service projects.

Abigail Getz feels that 4-H creates intelligent young adults who go through life with a full skill set., that they learn through the projects they take. If chosen as queen, she would like to reach out to county schools to promote and advocate for Clark County 4-H and agriculture. Abigail is a member of the Global Impact 4-H club and has been a member of 4-H for 5 years. She shows lambs and participates in sewing and quilting projects. She has served as the Lamb and Wool Princess and a camp counselor.

Chloe Gillaugh has experienced many positive opportunities through 4-H, and would like to pass the positive experience to youth in the community. She describes 4-H as a skill learning, problem solving, and friendship making community. She wants to serve as an advocate and grow the awareness of 4-H in the community. She is an 8 year member of the 2 Hot 2 Trot club. She has participated in a variety of miscellaneous projects such as sewing, cooking, photography, cake decorating and shooting sports. Chloe serves on the Food and Fashion board, and as the president of the shooting sports club.

Seth Richardson prides himself in being a leader and role model for the youth in the community. He describes 4-H as a program that teaches youth how to be healthy, self directing, productive, and contributing members of their community with never ending possibilities. He wants to be king so that he can have the opportunity to share the impact 4-H has made in his life. He is a 9 year member of the Blue Ribbon 4-H Club and has shown goats, pigs and beef feeders. He is a camp counselor and a member of the Junior Fair Board. Seth also serves as a Junior Fire Cadet at the Pike Township Fire Department.

4-H Royalty Candidates

Andrew Ryan is a member of the Growing Clever Clovers 4-H club. He feels that 4-H is a program designed to help kids reach their full potential and blossom into great people. He describes 4-H as a youth development program that empowers young people with the skills and opportunities to lead and flourish for a lifetime. He wants to expand 4-H into the inner city schools and into classrooms, so that others could have the same opportunities. He began a 4-H in 2011 and has participated in showing market hogs, goats and lambs. He serves as the president of his 4-H club and held the office of vice president and treasurer. He wants to showcase 4-H in the community and be a positive role model for other youth.

Jacob Sprowl describes himself as determined, driven and caring. He feels that 4-H has helped him overcome adversity and build confidence in his ability. He describes 4-H as a place where you learn new skills, make new friends and be able to be yourself. He wants to expand the 4-H presence in schools and the community. He has been a member of the Ohio Livestock Boosters club for 9 years. He has participated in dairy feeder, goat, rabbit, duck and various miscellaneous projects. He was the 2018 Poultry King, and the 2019 4-H Prince. He would like to expand 4-H to include more children with disabilities.

Hannah Suver feels that 4-H invites families and friends to experience, learn, and grow while creating lifelong memories. She feels that 4-H promotes children to learn, be responsible, through their projects. She strives to be a positive role model for the children of the Clark County and 4-H community by making them feel welcomed. As a member of the Waddle-Ewe-Do club for 10 years, Hannah has participated in rabbits, dairy heifers, dairy feeders along with a variety of clothing, photography and creative arts projects. She serves as the vice president of her club and is a member of the Food and Fashion Board.

Madison Trinkle describes herself as a hardworking, dedicated, caring, helpful, leader who loves 4-H. She says that 4-H helps youth reach their full potential by learning life skills, working with others, and making themselves and others better. She wants to promote the amazing benefits that 4-H has to offer, especially in the private and public schools. She is a member of the Barn Busters club and has been a member of 4-H for 10 years, and has participated in raising and showing goats, rabbits, dairy feeders, turkey, ducks and a variety of miscellaneous and creative masterpiece projects. She is a camp counselor, serves on the Junior Fair Board and various committees. She is the 2019 4-H Princess.
