Take Note: Hair length will be checked on the top two placed hogs in each class. Any other hog in the class can be checked if deemed necessary. Hair length will be measured by a hair length judge hired by the Clark County Fair. If the hair length judge rules a hog ineligible to show, it will also be ineligible for any awards and prize money in the Open Class Swine Show. If a placed hog is ruled ineligible, the hogs placed below it will move up their placing in order. Any hog ruled ineligible will receive market price from United Producer's, Inc.

The 2024 Clark County Fair Open Class Swine Show is a partial terminal show. There will be no carcass show or carcass results.

There is to be absolutely NO drenching (drenching is the manual forcing of water into an animal's mouth) of livestock at the Clark County Fair.

Slick clipping or body shaving of market hogs is prohibited except on ears or tails. Slick clipping or body shaving means having hair that is less than one-half (1/2) inch length on the body of market hogs.

Rules:

1. All entries in the Swine Department must be made on or before July 1, 2024. Entries postmarked after this date will not be accepted. An entry fee of $10.00 per hog must accompany the entry blank. Any entries submitted after July 1, 2024 must pay a late fee of $5.00 additional to the $10.00 entry fee for a total of $15.00. Late Entries may be submitted up to July 25, 2024 at weigh-in.
