

2024 Honor Roll

Tony Gravenkemper has lived in Clark County his entire life and is proud to call it his home. He grew up in Pitchin with his three siblings and his parents Carl and Cathy Gravenkemper. Tony was involved in 4-H for many years showing numerous animals including jersey cows as well as participating and even succeeding in the calf scramble. With Tony growing up very involved in the fair when he chose his career path at Ohio Edison he also became an electrician at the fairgrounds. For the past 33 years he has taken pride in the work he does and continues to enjoy it every day. Tony has worked with so many amazing people throughout the years creating lots of memories and lifelong friendships. Some of the most memorable few years were the ones he was able to spend working alongside his son. Tony is always willing to help out on any project that is asked of him to make the grounds such a wonderful facility for the fair as well as so many other events. He is very proud to be a part of this community and enjoys meeting new people every year.
